

Our Hiding Place

Hello, friends. Sometimes we need a place to "hide." A place to go where we can be quiet, and commune with God. And God has promised to be that One. He is our hiding place. He is One in whom we can confide in safely. He is our Friend. Psalm 32:7 says, "For you are my hiding place; you protect me from trouble. You surround me with songs of victory." Not only is He our hiding place, He is our protector. He promises to surround us with songs. Songs of defeat? No! Songs of victory through Christ Jesus! You see, with Jesus in your heart, you can be happy. Happy enough to sing. Sing praises to Him who delivered you from trouble. Sing praises to Him who is your hiding place. Sing praises to Him who is your protector. Someday soon, Jesus will come again, not as a bleeding Lamb, slain for the sins of the world, but as a King of all Kings! He is coming to take His faithful ones home with Him where we will reign forever and ever. Right now He is preparing mansions for us. "Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. There is more than enough room in my Father's home. If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am." John 14:1-3

If you don't have a relationship with God, and need a place to go and "hide", go to Jesus. He will accept you into His loving arms.
